

INTRODUCTORY GUIDE TO CFR RESOURCES

Below you will find a listing of CFR and Foreign Affairs offerings organized by resource type. The first link takes you to a general landing page for the category. It is followed by links to specific examples for each resource type.

These educational resources and more are available at CFR Campus, the online gateway to CFR's research tools and multimedia resources for teaching and learning about global affairs.

I. Interactive Resources

Model Diplomacy

CFR's free classroom-based National Security Council simulation uses role-play to demonstrate the challenges of shaping U.S. foreign policy in an interconnected world. Fourteen case studies feature hypothetical situations based on real world events that help students gain knowledge, build skills, and broaden perspectives, <https://modeldiplomacy.cfr.org>.
