

1995-2016

Reasons for Supporting Constitutional Revision (Yomiuri)

- Japan confronts new issues that cannot be addressed under the current constitution, such as contributing to international cooperation
- Policy change by reinterpreting the constitution has become too confusing
- The current constitution puts too much emphasis on citizen rights rather than duties
- The constitution should include reference to the right of self-defense and to the Self Defense Force
- The US forced upon us
- No answer
- Others