2012–2013 Donor Listing

Gifts to the Annual Fund
Operating Grants
Endowment and Other Special Gifts

An abstract geometric pattern composed of various triangles and circles, some of which are filled with a bright, glowing light, creating a starburst or kaleidoscope effect. The pattern is set against a dark background.

The Council on Foreign Relations receives charitable contributions from a variety of private sources, including its members, corporations, and foundations. As the premier foreign policy organization in the United States, CFR plays a leading role in contributing to the intellectual momentum that is needed to address a broad spectrum of current and emerging problems, and unrestricted gifts to the Annual Fund help ensure the organization's independence and nonpartisanship. Gifts to CFR are tax deductible to the full extent allowed by U.S. law and, in the case of individual members, are contributed over and above annual membership dues.

ANNUAL FUND

Gifts to the Annual Fund account for more than 10 percent of the organization's operating budget each year. This critical unrestricted revenue provides support for the Council's meetings, research, website, and related activities. The Annual Fund surpassed $8 million this year, with more than one-third of the membership participating. Our leadership group of Annual Fund benefactors, the Harold Pratt Associates (gifts from $20,000 to $49,999), had 142 members, and 69 members qualified as members of the Chairman's Circle with their gifts of $50,000 or more. CFR is honored to acknowledge all of its members who supported the 2012–2013 Annual Fund in the list that follows. Many Council members leveraged their gifts by participating in matching gift programs, and sponsoring corporations and foundations are recognized here as well.

OPERATING GRANTS AND ENDOWMENT, RESTRICTED AND SPECIAL GIFTS

The Council on Foreign Relations is grateful to the many foundations, corporations, individuals, and other benefactors that have provided support for specific projects and initiatives this year. The David Rockefeller Studies Program, the Council's award-winning website CFR.org, the Meetings Program, and the National Program were just some beneficiaries of these gifts. Endowment gifts for fellowships, special lectures, symposia, and various named events ensure that these activities remain on the Council's agenda in perpetuity. The Council is pleased to recognize the following contributors of these special gifts.
